Promenade will run for 10 Days beginning Sept. 15, with Two Performances Each Evening from 8-10 p.m. (EDT and PDT).

Cennarium, one of the Largest Streaming Services for the Performing arts, will make some of the most Spectacular Performances from Around The world available to Audiences for Free during "Promenade," the First-ever Streamed Performing Arts Festival. Promenade will run for 10 Days beginning Sept. 15, with Two Performances Each Evening from 8-10 p.m. (EDT and PDT).

The Festival was created by Cennarium to promote Making Performing Arts Content available to Larger Audiences through Streaming. The Majority of the Population does not have access to the Performing Arts with 95 % of Large Productions restricted to Major Cities, making it difficult and in many cases impossible for Most People to see Great Shows.

Performances chosen for Promenade have been carefully curated from some of the finest Performing Arts Productions from Around The World. Each Night will feature Two Performances to be Streamed Simultaneously in a Specific Genre, including Dance, Theater, Opera, Magic, Circus, Comedy and Musical. There will be Chatrooms for Viewers to connect with Each Other, a Program Guide for the Evening with Information about the Performances and Performers and a Guest Host for the Evening to welcome Viewers and introduce the Performances. Among the Performances to be streamed in high-definition during the Festival are the Epic Undertaking of Alexander Ekman's "A Swan Lake," the Multi-awarded German Musical "Dangerous Liaisons," San Francisco Opera's Thrilling Production "Moby Dick," Grupo Galpao's Carnavalesque "Romeo & Juliet" and several others.

Promenade will benefit Broadway Cares/Equity Fights AIDS, with a Donation being made for Every Performance streamed during the Festival up to $5,000. Broadway Cares/Equity Fights AIDS is one of the Nation's Leading Nonprofit AIDS Fundraising and Grant-making Organizations. Since 1988 BC/EFA has raised more than $285 Million for Essential Services for People with AIDS and other Critical Illnesses across the United States.

Cennarium America LLC is a Producer and Licensor of Performing Arts Content for Online Distribution. Cennarium offers Subscribers a wide Selection of World-class Performances in High-definition Encompassing a Variety of Genres including Drama, Dance, Comedy, Musical, Opera and other Theatrical Productions. The Company is Headquartered in New York and has Offices in France and Brazil.
